Dear Chevalier of Iron Nerves:

This is not Pompei or Ostia, though it looks like it. The whole city resembles excavations.* [(marginal note:) *Will Bobby like it? I do not know.¹] Thanks for your letter. I shall stand at attention at the gunwale of the N. Amsterdam in Southampton² & whistle you aboard with all the honors due to a retired N.R. Lieutenant.³ We shall have many talks during our crossing. For today, good luck in England.

Love

EKa [Signed]

¹ Robert Benson was going to spend the coming academic year in Munich.

² Eka, after having boarded the ship in its home port in Holland, would welcome me aboard when it stopped to pick up more passengers in Southampton.

³ I had been a naval officer in World War II.
