

Berlin, Aug.31, 1938.

Dear Professor Kofka,

may I, in accordance with our conversation, suggest to you the following subjects, one of which you might find suitable for being lectured at your College.

1. The transformation of the nature of Time in the later Middle Ages.
2. Oedipus, a mediaeval Saint.
3. Charles of Anjou and the rise of Imperialism.
4. 'Imago' or 'Verbum'. The hierarchy of senses in mediaeval thought.
5. Charles the Bold and the Italian Renaissance.
6. Secularized hermitage and the cult of S. Jerome in the Renaissance.